

well, feel that a void has been made that can never be filled.

RESOLVED, That we do hereby express our deep sorrow in the loss we have sustained and commend his life to those who knew him as worthy of limitation; that Otis was loved by all; was fully shown, in that the highest officers in the county closed their doors and came to share our sorrow at his obsequies. Kind and generous to all; none knew him but to hold him in highest esteem.

Educational and Other Matters.

BY L. L. HAWKINS.

If you are my enemy, be open; if my friend, be candid.

Affection of modesty decides no one, but the one that practices it.

"Thoroughness" seems to be the motto of Hartford College, put into one.

Be more careful to be polite to your inferiors than your superiors, as those who better effort to do without it.

Never slap a child on the head nor fettle it in the hand. There is no much danger in either method of punishment.

O—Your friend was right; position does not always mean anger. One may have a passion for flowers, another for music, etc.

On the new Argentine Pacific railroad, there are one stretch of road two hundred and eleven miles long, and a curve or bridge.

Mr. Peter Thomas, of Thomas Bros., will please to accept our most sincere thanks for the present of a dozen nice color pictures. Thanks very much, Mr. Thomas, and may your trade increase.

Willy—Willingness to fight does not enervate, but shows the man who is not afraid of his opponent, and is the result of his confidence. To refuse to fight shows more genuine courage than a dozen fights.

O—Some of you send your child to school without a book, you will pay the tuition fee, without any instructions to the child. The fee is not tuition, but more nearly earned by any other, for you know the child always finds out the work for his hands to do.

When first the school trustees elected their trustees, they should have more vote for themselves, thinking they were receiving pay from the trustees, and not the trustees, who are the trustees of the school. Let the trustees and others understand that that service is not of their trustees, but of ours.

We are always glad to receive letters from the little folks asking for information on any proper subject, and they will be answered as promptly as possible. State your age, and write so that your question can be understood. No matter your land writing, no matter your grammar. Be sure, if you want an answer to give your name and say where you live.

There are some teachers of schools, and even some fathers, who think the little child is a creature of the "town clique." My experience is quite different. We attended the first little child in this country, and in fact, every one since, when practicing, we never attended but we were benefited, and went home with a new idea. I witness for some of the citizens of the town that all the benefits have derived from the Institute have been a work's gratitudes born of some of the teachers. Don't abolish the Institute.

"I give my experience for the benefit of others. I sent $6.00 to the Queen City Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, and received 2 agents outfit, and my own outfit for territory. I started with my friends to work and also canvassed myself for one month; my friends now are all over the country, and I have found it no trouble to take orders, even to drug stores, for my own use, but help buying when they saw with their own eyes what I had done. I now have one sub-agent in the town and a launch office in the town, which the company mentions in their advertisement in our country paper. My clear profit last month was $105. One county gives me all the business I can attend to."

BURLEY TOBACCO.

Its Culture, Curing, Assorting and Handling.

I have many inquiries from those not familiar with the Burley Tobacco, seeking information as to the best means of curing, sorting and handling, and I give some suggestions approved by the most successful growers of Burley Tobacco.

Much depends upon beginning right in raising a crop of tobacco. Secure plenty of seed and have them planted in rows of curing and handling, and I give some suggestions approved by the most successful growers of Burley Tobacco.
